

---

CRISTINA DEL SOL

BIOGRAPHY

Cristina Del Sol grew up in a small rural city of Buenos Aires, Argentina, where she received formal art training from the National School of Fine Arts, completing a Bachelor of Fine Art Honours' degree.

In Canada she further her art education at 'Toronto Art School', in painting and drawing, continuing till today attending a number of professional development workshops to increase her skills and supporting her continuing growth as an artist.

She has exhibited in Canada, the U.S and Argentina, with artwork featured in International books, juried art shows and contests. Her paintings are in private collections worldwide.

She is following her creative dreams in her third floor studio overlooking the Ottawa River and the Gatineau Hills