

ROBERT SEGUIN

BIOGRAPHY

Born in Montreal, Robert is a self-taught painter. He studied at Concordia University in the design program. Robert has worked as a billboard painter and also as an illustrator, computer artist and colourist in the publishing business. During that time, he developed his painting technique and took part in many group exhibitions.

His work can be found in many private and corporate collections in Canada. Robert's work is available at Koyman Galleries in Ottawa, Ontario.